

The Institution offers a course on human values and professional ethics

Though the College does not offer any course on human values and professional ethics, it is taught in the curriculum of the existing subjects.

Department of Philosophy – Vedic Value System(PHIL-G-DSE-T-1B); Western Ethics (PHIL-G-DSE-T-2A); Contemporary Indian Philosophy (PHIL-G-DSE-T-3); Yoga Philosophy (PHIL-G-SEC-T-04); Applied Ethics (PHIL-G-GE-T-1)

Department of Sociology – Religion & Society (4/UG-G/CC-4, Indian Society); environmental Sociology (6/UG-G/DSE/2A)

Department of Geography – Human Geography (GEO/H/CC/T/03); Concept of Human Development and HDI (GEO/H/GE/T/02/B)

Department of Political Science – Human Rights, Gender and Environment (POL-H-GE-T-2); Gandhi & Modern India (POL-H-GE-T-1(A)); Social Movements (POL-H-GE-T-1(B)); Governance and development , Environmental Governance (POL-H-GE-T-2(B)); Indian Political Thought (POL-H-CC-T-6); Democratic Awareness with Legal Literacy (POL-H-SEC-T-1(B))

Department of History – Socio-Economic Roots of Renaissance; Secularism and humanism (Course-VI (Hons)); American War of Independence – Birth of democratic politics (Course –VII); Modern Europe – Politics of democracy- the new woman (Course-XIII); Semester-VI: History of Women in India (Unit –I, II, III & IV); General Elective: Human Rights in India (Course-I); History of Indian Environment (Course –II); Making Contemporary India (Unit -4)

Department of Sanskrit- Philosophy, Religion and Culture in Sanskrit Tradition (SANS-G-DSE-T-01); Yogasutra of Patanjali (SANS-G-SEC-T-03); Indian Culture & Social Issues (SANS-G-GE-T-02)

Apart from this, the College displays several quotations enhancing human values and professional ethics in Notice Boards, display boards , website and some walls of the classrooms